

Community Health Community and Economic Development Logic Model

Inputs

CEDIK Faculty and Staff
(Davis, Kahl, Nall)
Local health networks/coalitions
Kentucky Office of Rural Health
Kentucky Hospital Association
Local Health Departments

Outputs

Activities	Participation
Community-based trainings for networks and coalitions	Integration across program areas: FCS
Agent in-service trainings on working with coalitions	Action Team Members: M. Nall D. Parrett L. Harned L. Workman A. Davis
Hospital Leadership trainings
Arts in Healthcare
Community Forums	Community Partners
Listening Sessions
Board Development training

Outcomes – Impact

Initial Outcomes (KOSA)	Intermediate Outcomes (Practice Change)	Long Term Outcomes (SEEC)
Increase Agent awareness of opportunities and challenges working with new and established health networks in state. Evaluation resources: Community Forums, Listening Sessions, number of new, formal collaborations created, number of established coalitions/networks coached, lessons learned from agents	Health Networks and coalitions are strengthened through training, education and increased community engagement. Increased knowledge and utilization of local health services by rural residents.	Improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Kentuckians; Sustain needed healthcare services in rural communities through strengthened partnerships.

Situation

Promoting ways to improve access to healthcare services with the goal of sustaining services in rural Kentucky.

Assumptions/Resources

State led: Coalition/Network building, Arts in Healthcare partner with Arts agents, Hospital Leadership Series, Board Development training.
Agent training:
Data profiles, grant writing

National Indicators and Agent Metrics

- Number of new health organizations created
- Number of participating agencies
- Number of activities initiated by coalition
- Funding dollars received by coalition